

Giving large corporations more control of the airwaves will reduce the amount of competition. As it stands now, the industry is one big oligopoly and it scares me. Please do not give more control to these companies. In fact, they should be required by the FCC to contribute to the funding of more public broadcasting, or smaller media groups.